LAWRENCE LEWIS
EPK 2023

Lawrence Lewis, formerly known as Angus Brill Reed currently resides in Adelaide, South Australia as he starts his first year out of school. The first 'Lawrence Lewis' single 'GUTEN TAG' is officially being dropped 28th of June. During 2023 Lawrence will start performing across Australia. He started Dj-ing at 13 years old and has been Dj-ing in the Adelaide club and party scene for the past 4 years. Now he's finally out of school you'll always find him planning local rave nights/boiler rooms at Adelaide clubs and underground warehouses.

Lawrence Lewis is a singer, producer, songwriter, DJ and play most instruments. He has been working on his brand new artist project Lawrence Lewis for the past 3 years but has been releasing and writing music since he was 6. Lawrence Lewis, is actually a combination of his and his brother's, Henry, middle name which happened to also be his great grandfathers name. Henry accompanies Lawrence on synthesizer for shows when the instruments are live to emulate the likes of Disclosure and Fred Again.

Lawrences key musical influences are Fisher, James Hype, Disclosure, Golden Features, Martin Garrix, Fred Again, and Dom Dolla. He creates house music that blends the line between tech, deep, fidget, and uk house. He wants his music to both pump through the clubs at 3am on a Saturday night, and through car systems on the way to work Monday morning.

Some of the nightclubs he plays at in Adelaide are RedSquare, The Tunnels, Atlantis, private parties for the former-premier Steven Marshall, and over 50 college raves around the state with crowds over 400.

He has been working closely with dance artist Alex Hosking who is signed to Warner Records and Sony Publishing and has written and released songs with (PS1, GoodBoys, Disciples, Craig Gorman, Majestic, Lucas & Steve, Rain Radio, Billen Tedd etc) as well as local producer and DJ M4SONIC (who wrote top charting and record breaking song "what does the fox say" and works regularly with Will Sparks etc) as well as Tori Marshall (Warner Brothers, Fergie, Jason Derulo, Chris Brown and Kendrick Lamar) as well as international Vocal Coach and industry mentor Kirsty Roberts.
